

Until the power companies can eliminate or at least greatly reduce the amount of radio interference generated by Access BPL, then I am opposed to them being allowed to proceed. Thanks for your attention to this matter.